

Questions for Homegroups

Ezra 3

- Imagine yourself as an Israelite, entering the land, surrounded by enemies and opting to rebuild the altar before either the city walls or even the Temple foundations. What are the advantages and disadvantages of this strategy for restoring God's people? What relevance might this have for modern Christians?
- What are the key aspects of their worship? Why are they important for us?
- Jesus said "seek first his kingdom and his righteousness and all these things will be given to you". Is worshipping God a priority for you?
- In this chapter building comes after worship. What are the characteristics of the building that they eventually do?
- At the completion of the Temple foundations there was both joy and weeping. Should Christians be joyful or weeping or both, and in what proportions?

Questions for Homegroups

Ezra 3

- Imagine yourself as an Israelite, entering the land, surrounded by enemies and opting to rebuild the altar before either the city walls or even the Temple foundations. What are the advantages and disadvantages of this strategy for restoring God's people? What relevance might this have for modern Christians?
- What are the key aspects of their worship? Why are they important for us?
- Jesus said "seek first his kingdom and his righteousness and all these things will be given to you". Is worshipping God a priority for you?
- In this chapter building comes after worship. What are the characteristics of the building that they eventually do?
- At the completion of the Temple foundations there was both joy and weeping. Should Christians be joyful or weeping or both, and in what proportions?

Questions for Homegroups

Ezra 3

- Imagine yourself as an Israelite, entering the land, surrounded by enemies and opting to rebuild the altar before either the city walls or even the Temple foundations. What are the advantages and disadvantages of this strategy for restoring God's people? What relevance might this have for modern Christians?
- What are the key aspects of their worship? Why are they important for us?
- Jesus said "seek first his kingdom and his righteousness and all these things will be given to you". Is worshipping God a priority for you?
- In this chapter building comes after worship. What are the characteristics of the building that they eventually do?
- At the completion of the Temple foundations there was both joy and weeping. Should Christians be joyful or weeping or both, and in what proportions?