Philippians 2:19-30 'The importance of examples'

With 1.49 billion users - what are the pros and cons of facebook? Is it reshaping our notion of community?

Nb - for some tips/guidelines on keeping your Facebook use in control, head to this blog post by Tim Chester

Paul commends the example of Timothy and Epaphroditus to the Philippians, as Christians following the example of their saviour.

What does he pick out about Timothy and Epaphroditus' character? What inspires you? What challenges you?

Tim picked out selfless concern and costly sacrificial love as key character traits demonstrated by these two guys; how can you demonstrate these things in your relationships at home, work, church?

Lightbulbs only shine when there's current flowing through them; same for us, we only shine as God's grace and power overflow out of our hearts. What can we do help us enjoy a closer walk with Jesus?

Why is Philippians 1v6 is one of the most encouraging verses in the Bible?
