Luke 24:36-53

1. If this was the only NT text we had about what things would we learn about him?¹
2. In my experience “repentance for the forgiveness of sins” is not a common way for many Christians today to summarise the message. Is this fair? If it is fair, why is this the case?
3. How can repentance be misunderstood? (refer to sermon if needed)
4. Why are the OT scriptures good evidence in evangelism?
5. Do we know our OT well enough to be able to see that the messiah would die, rise, and that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed to all nations? How could we work towards knowing our OT's better?

¹ I can think of at least...

- a) gentle in his dealings with the disciples
- b) very important based on saying all OT scripture points to him and the message is “in his name”
- c) powerful in opening minds to understand scriptures
- d) divine in being worshipped
