

Questions for Homegroups

---

1 Peter 2:9-17

- In 1 Peter 2:17 we read about three different relationships. How does this summary statement help us to understand what Peter has been talking about in the rest of the passage?
- How can God's people "declare the praises" of God?
- What are the particular challenges of living good lives among the pagans today?
- How can Peter tell them to "submit" to authorities when in Acts 4:19-20 he explicitly did not? What is the balance of NT teaching on this? Why is submission such a key instruction?
- How might our exercise of freedom be used as a cover up for evil?
- What do you think needs to change in your life to implement the lifestyle that Peter is calling us to?

Questions for Homegroups

---

1 Peter 2:9-17

- In 1 Peter 2:17 we read about three different relationships. How does this summary statement help us to understand what Peter has been talking about in the rest of the passage?
- How can God's people "declare the praises" of God?
- What are the particular challenges of living good lives among the pagans today?
- How can Peter tell them to "submit" to authorities when in Acts 4:19-20 he explicitly did not? What is the balance of NT teaching on this? Why is submission such a key instruction?
- How might our exercise of freedom be used as a cover up for evil?
- What do you think needs to change in your life to implement the lifestyle that Peter is calling us to?

Questions for Homegroups

---

1 Peter 2:9-17

- In 1 Peter 2:17 we read about three different relationships. How does this summary statement help us to understand what Peter has been talking about in the rest of the passage?
- How can God's people "declare the praises" of God?
- What are the particular challenges of living good lives among the pagans today?
- How can Peter tell them to "submit" to authorities when in Acts 4:19-20 he explicitly did not? What is the balance of NT teaching on this? Why is submission such a key instruction?
- How might our exercise of freedom be used as a cover up for evil?
- What do you think needs to change in your life to implement the lifestyle that Peter is calling us to?