

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 3:13-22

- What are the key things Peter wants us to remember when we speak about our faith (vv13-17)?
- How does fear affect these?
- What personal successes or failures come mind?
- What do you need to do in order to be better ready for bear witness to Christ?
- What do vv18-22 have to do with the previous paragraph?
- Why does Peter think that baptism is important? What importance does baptism have in your understanding?
- Why is it important in our dealings with the world to know that “Christ also suffered...was made alive... has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God”?
- From this study how does your personal witness need to change?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 3:13-22

- What are the key things Peter wants us to remember when we speak about our faith (vv13-17)?
- How does fear affect these?
- What personal successes or failures come mind?
- What do you need to do in order to be better ready for bear witness to Christ?
- What do vv18-22 have to do with the previous paragraph?
- Why does Peter think that baptism is important? What importance does baptism have in your understanding?
- Why is it important in our dealings with the world to know that “Christ also suffered...was made alive... has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God”?
- From this study how does your personal witness need to change?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Peter 3:13-22

- What are the key things Peter wants us to remember when we speak about our faith (vv13-17)?
- How does fear affect these?
- What personal successes or failures come mind?
- What do you need to do in order to be better ready for bear witness to Christ?
- What do vv18-22 have to do with the previous paragraph?
- Why does Peter think that baptism is important? What importance does baptism have in your understanding?
- Why is it important in our dealings with the world to know that “Christ also suffered...was made alive... has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God”?
- From this study how does your personal witness need to change?